

Get educated: Anti-racism resources

These resources will be enhanced as more become available. To recommend a resource for consideration, please email to cdi@ohsu.edu.

Thursday, June 11, a p.m., Better Futures, Visioning in a Time of Crisis with Walidah Imarisha

Friday, June 26, Noon to 1:30 p.m., Responding to racial bias and microaggressions in the online environment, webinar and discussion.

Timeless resources

- Surviving and resisting hate: a toolkit for people of color
- Frequently asked questions about racism and white privilege
- Anti-racism resources for white people and parents
- Books for personal growth or group study
- Let's talk! Discussing race, racism and other difficult topics with students
- How to talk about race and racism: podcast

Understanding Oregon's uniquely exclusionary history

Local Color

This OPB documentary tells of a too-little-known history of Portland and Oregon and the civil rights work of Oregonians.

The Racist History of Portland, the Whitest City in America

The Atlantic, July 22, 2016